County court is in session, and all three Judges are now busily engaged in transacting the county's business and looking after its interests.

The rattle of the coal-wagons and the jingle of the bells recall to us the memory of times gone by, and are cheerful to us who have been borne down under the weight of the hard times of 1873-4.

G. W. Scoggins, of Big Creek, tells us that he last week sheared a Cotswold ram, one year old, whose fleece was thirteen inches long, and weighed eleven pounds. From a two year old ewe, he sheared nine pounds of wool. These sheep had not been the subject of particular care, but took their chance on the range with the remainder of his flock.

A new post-office, named Montana, has been established in Iron county with Geo. Williamson for post-master. It is situated on the route which runs from Bellevue to Salem, and the mail contractor, Mr. Orrick, has received due notice to "take it in" hereafter. We congratulate the people of that section upon their increased facilities for communication with the outer world.

We learn that they had a lively time at Pilot Knob last Monday afternoon and night. The men were paid off in the morning, and a lot of them began at once to fill themselves with benzine, with the usual result. There was perfect Pandemonium which lasted until the effects of the spirits wore off, or the belligerents were hushed in drunken sleep. No arrests were made, and we respectfully and humbly ask, Why?

FAIR AND FESTIVAL—To be given by the children of the valley for a charitable purpose. We extend a hearty invitation to one and all, and the young folks are especially invited to come and have their fortune told at the Gypsy Tent. Rebekahs will be found at the well, and all who are thirsty may drink freely. Refreshments of all kinds will be served by the children. Admission free. Come one, come all! to the Court House Friday evening, June 11th.

The past week has been one of great political excitement, and the Chicago Convention has been the one topic of conversation at home, on the streets, in the stores, at church—before the exercises commenced, of course—and everywhere else except, perhaps, the land-office, the post-office, and the Register's office. While we have taken but little interest in the matter, the post-office has taken less, and the land-office positively none at all. The righteous can abide in contentment while the wicked are ever in trouble.

Friend Wiesner, of the drug store, had a rather serious mishap last Saturday. He smashed a vial of croton oil while inserting the cork, and a part of its contents were thrown into his face and eyes. For twenty-four hours he suffered severely, and for that time he could not tell but that his eyesight was seriously injured or destroyed. Fortunately the misfortune proves not to have been so great as that, and while his eyes are yet weak and his sight somewhat dimmed, his ultimate complete recovery is assured.

City of Ironton, Mo.
Ironton, Mo., June 1st, 1880.

Leonard Shields has been in trouble again. On the 3d inst. he was taken up for disturbing the peace, and assaulting his wife, and taken before Judge Dinger. A change of venue was asked for by him and granted, and the case taken before Judge Hancock, who gave him a continuance, until the 7th inst. The defendant employed the time intervening in making his peace with his wife, and so that part of the charge was dropped; but he was tried on the other, and fined $3 and costs—in all $28.75. From all that we can learn it is about "nip and tuck" between the man and wife; notwithstanding which, we trust the next time Mr. Shields is brought before the courts, he may get such a dose as will satisfy even him for a year and a day.

Pursuant to announcement, the Debating Society met June 5th, with Mr. John Gresson as assistant chairman. Owing to the creditable manner in which the committee prepared the constitution and by-laws, they were passed upon almost without discussion. The name of the Society was changed to Young Men's Literary Club. The first subject for debate given out was: "Should the education of the sexes be equally extensive?" with the following appointed as debaters:
Affirmative—E. C. Russell, Fred Wilkinson, Geo. Lopez.
Negative—Wm. R. Edgar, Wm. Newman, Grant Tetwiler.
Reading by Mr. John Gresson, and annexing concluding clauses to the by-laws will be the exercises for next Saturday evening, June 13, at Good Templars Hall. The Club meetings, after June 13, will be every alternate Tuesday. Our Motto: "Knowledge is Power."

PERSONALS.—Mr. F. A. Guild returned home from Columbia last Saturday. He has been taking a Civil Engineering and Mining course, and will graduate next year.

Mrs. Belle Moser left on Thursday last for Bloomington, Ill., on a visit to friends and relatives.

Misses McNair and Branch who have been visiting Judge Bakewell's, returned to St. Louis Monday morning.

Mr. O. M. Munroe, who has filled the position as Inspector of Ore at Pilot Knob, for the past month, returned to his home in New York Wednesday morning. His friends here will regret very much to hear of his departure. He is a gentleman of fine education and won many warm friends during his stay among us.

Mrs. Robert Lindsey and family, came down from the City to spend the warm months in Ironton.

Miss Nellie Prince, left for Belleville Ill., last week on a visit to relatives.

Mr. F. A. Swager, who has been visiting relatives in the Valley, left for St. Louis Thursday morning, accompanied by his cousin Miss Cora Taylor.

Mrs. T. Moore of Poplar Bluff, was in town last week visiting friends and relatives.

Arcadia Convent Exhibition.

The regular annual commencement exercises of the pupils of the Convent of the Ursuline Sisters will take place on Thursday, June 17th, at 3 o'clock P. M., in the grand exhibition hall. These exercises, which in the past have been so interesting, will be particularly grand this year. The Sisters are determined to conduct their institution as first class in the strictest sense, and the annual commencements of the pupils will be an exhibit of their success. Parents, patrons and friends of the Arcadia Convent are cordially invited, without further notice, to the exhibition to be held on June 17th.

In the parlors will be exhibited the work, useful and ornamental, of the pupils, such as wax flowers, spice flowers, artificial flowers, embroidery of various kinds; sewing, plain and ornamental, and crayon drawings; also some of the results of the culinary experience of the pupils. Besides the delightful musical and literary feast in the hall, this alone would be well worth a visit. Parlors will be open at 1 o'clock P. M., so that plenty of time will be given for viewing the works of the pupils before the entertainment begins.

IMPORTANT REDUCTION.—From and after this date, the Ironton Manufacturing Company will sell their

Choice XXXX Family Flour, at $2.50
CASH PER 100 LBS.,
and guarantee the same to be as good as that of any other manufacture.

Orders left at the mill or post-office, or sent by mail, will be promptly attended to, and the flour delivered in the Valley, free of extra charge.

Des Arc, Mo., June 6th, 1880.

Ed. Register—

This beautiful Sabbath evening I thought I would drop you a few lines. We had preaching to-day by the Rev. Mr. Settle, of Fredericktown. R. A. Clarkson and family, of Annapolis, were present. Col. T. B. Lowe also honored us by his presence and sang like a major. Glad to see the Colonel come to church: it may do him good; but he should not come through town on his way there.

Our blacksmith is hammering away and getting lots of work to do.

Jake Ake made us a flying visit last week.

Miss Johnson, of Bellevue, is visiting friends at this place.

Isom Smith has commenced shipping lumber.

Vulcan shipped 64 car-loads of lumber in April and 58 in May.

Wheat is firm in this neighborhood.

How is Mike Dodson getting along? I saw a photograph of the Ironton colored school, down here, taken by an artist who was at Ironton some time ago. In it, Mike Dodson is plainly visible in a group of colored children. Mike, are you still peeping in at windows and taking notes?

We are going to have a Sunday-school picnic soon. Gunboats will get his fill of pie once more.

I hear that Sheriff Buford is in Reynolds county electioneering for collector of Iron county.

I have not heard whether Fletcher got home or not. I am afraid the mosquitoes devoured him while in Wayne county. One man says that if Fletcher will that he will get him six votes at Gad's Hill.

UNCLE ISAAC.
